Information Sought : With reference to the DOPT FAQ on policy of reservation (attached), kindly refer Q.7 What is a Backlog Vacancy and in reference to the recruitment advertisement of IIFCL dated 23.02.2021 for the post of Assistant Manager and subsequently its result declaration on the IIFCL website dated 24.09.2021, kindly provide following information

1. Is the attached DOPT FAQ on policy of reservation applicable to IIFCL?
2. If answer to above is yes, then confirm if the backlog vacancy as defined in Q.7 of the attachment stands true for IIFCL?
3. As per the definition of backlog vacancy, it is mentioned that Backlog reserved vacancies of a category are those vacancies which were earmarked reserved for that category in and earlier recruitment year but remained unfilled in the previous recruitment attempt on account of non-availability of suitable candidates belonging to that category and are still lying unfilled. Confirm if the EWS seat for the post of Assistant Manager advertised in the recruitment notice of IIFCL dated 23.02.2021, will be considered as backlog vacancy?
4. If not considered as backlog vacancy, then define the vacant seat.
5. As per Govt. Recruitment rules No.36039/1/2019-Estt (Res) dated 31-01-2019 for Reservation for Economically Weaker Sections (EWS) in direct recruitment in civil posts and services in the Government of India, under clause 6.3, if a seat earmarked for EWS category does not get filled due to non-availability of a suitable candidate then such seat(s) cannot be carried forward to the next recruitment year as a backlog vacancy. In this regard, kindly provide information on the following:
  - a. As per the RTI act, under section 4.1.d, IIFCL is obliged to provide reasons for its administrative decision to affected person, in this case me as I am waitlisted-1 under UR category (Roll no.- 1510000048 ) and potential candidate for the vacant seat. Kindly provide reasons as to why IIFCL has kept the EWS vacancy as backlog while DOPT order clearly states against it?

6. Provide all records, documents, notings regarding the one vacant EWS seat
7. As per Sub section 2.f of RTI Act, provide opinions and advices regarding this EWS seat
8. As per the RTI act, under section 4.1.b(iii), kindly provide details of the procedure followed in decision making process, including channel of supervision and accountability, with regards to the EWS vacant seat. Provide all relevant records, documents, notings.

Kindly provide all documents and reply to RTI through email.
