| Text of RTI First Appeal :   | I have asked for information in a particular format shared earlier. All the Cells should be read as Single Line. In .pdf conversion it has gone into multiple pages. The information sought is to see and analyse the recruitment trend pertaining to Specialist Officers in IIFCL and the period for the same is 2010 to 2018. This is to reiterate that all the cells are in single row. The format is so designed to see and analyse the entire life cycle of the advertised specialist post in IIFCL. The specialist post to be considered grade wise are Rajbhasha, Information Technology, Law and Risk. This information shall be useful in analyzing the life cycle of specialist positions in IIFCL by looking into their conversion trend to generalist, their promotion, their transfers and the need of refilling of same positions. |  |                      |
